

ION announces preliminary results of pending Exchange Offer

March 25, 2021

HOUSTON, March 25, 2021 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- ION Geophysical Corporation (NYSE: IO) (the "Company" or "ION") today announced that as of immediately after 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on March 24, 2021 (the "Early Tender Time"), the Company had received tenders and consents in its pending offer to exchange (the "Exchange Offer") the Company's 9.125% Senior Secured Second Priority Notes due 2021 (the "Old Notes") as set forth in the following table, for newly issued 8.00% Senior Secured Second Priority Notes due 2025 (the "New Notes") and the other consideration described in the Company's Prospectus dated as of March 10, 2021 (the "Prospectus").

Title of Notes	Aggregate Principal Amount Outstanding	Principal Amount Tendered by Early Tender Time	Percent Tendered by Early Tender Time
9.125% Senior Secured Second Priority Notes due 2021	$120,569,000	$113,244,000	93.92%

As previously announced, the Exchange Offer is scheduled to expire immediately after 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on April 8, 2021, unless extended or earlier terminated by the Company (such date and time, as the same may be extended, the "Expiration Time"). Eligible holders may tender their Old Notes in the Exchange Offer until the Expiration Time. Tendered Old Notes may be validly withdrawn prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on April 8, 2021 (such date and time, as the same may be extended, the "Withdrawal Deadline") but not thereafter, subject to limited exceptions, unless such time is extended by the Company at its sole discretion. It is expected that the settlement date will be on or about April 13, 2021, or as soon as practicable thereafter (such date and time, as the same may be extended, the "Settlement Date").

The Exchange Offer is subject to certain closing conditions, including participation in the Exchange Offer by at least 95% of the outstanding principal amount of the Old Notes as of the Expiration Time (the "Minimum Participation Condition"). The Minimum Participation Condition has not yet been met. The Company reserves the right, subject to the consent of the supporting parties in certain circumstances, to amend or extend the Exchange Offer, or amend, modify, or waive, in whole or in part, the terms of the Exchange Offer in any manner not prohibited by law, in connection with any efforts to achieve the Minimum Participation Condition.

In conjunction with the Exchange Offer, the Company also solicited consents (the "Consent Solicitation") from holders of Old Notes ("Consents") to certain proposed amendments to the indenture governing the Old Notes, dated as of April 28, 2016 (the "Old Notes Indenture"), to eliminate substantially all of the restrictive covenants and certain of the default provisions contained in the Old Notes Indenture and to release all collateral securing the Old Notes (the "Proposed Amendments"). The Company must receive Consents by holders of Old Notes representing at least 66 2/3% of the outstanding principal amount of the Old Notes to adopt the Proposed Amendments (the "Requisite Consents"). Based on the tenders received in the Exchange Offer and the Consents received in the Consent Solicitation (and assuming all other conditions to the closing of the Exchange Offer and the Consent Solicitation have been satisfied or waived), the Company has received the Requisite Consents necessary for the adoption of the Proposed Amendments to the Old Notes Indenture.

The description above includes only a summary of certain key terms of the Exchange Offer and the Consent Solicitation. The complete terms and conditions of the amended Exchange Offer are contained in the Prospectus and a registration statement on Form S-4 for the New Notes, filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission on January 29, 2021, as amended by the Amendment No. 1, filed with the Commission on February 12, 2021, and by the Amendment No. 2, filed with the Commission on March 3, 2021. Investors are urged to carefully read the Prospectus before making any decision with respect to the Exchange Offer and the Consent Solicitation.

Holders must make their own decision as to whether to tender Old Notes and deliver Consents and, if so, the principal amount of Old Notes to tender.
